

Please do not weaken or discontinue the Wisconsin No Call list. We are already innundated with government and big business interference in our lives, and allowing banks or other corporations to interrupt us during our limited free time is an affront to our freedom as Americans. Thanks.